3rd Pastor Guilty On Spy Counts

Makes Lengthy Confession To Sofia Court

SOPIA, Feb. 26.—(BUP)—The Rev. Vasil Georgiev Zyrkov, No. 1 defendant in the mass trial of 15 evangelist ministers, pleaded guilty today to charges of espionage for the Anglo-American, treason, and black marketing.

The third of 15 clergymen to state his case before the three-man Sofia court, Zyrkov like the two before him made a long confession after entering his guilty plea.

PEACE DELEGATE
Zyrkov represented the congressional evangelists, sect in Bulgaria. He was a member of the Bulgarian delegations at the peace conference in 1946.

The indictment charges Zyrkov with espionage for the Anglo-American, treason, and black marketing.

"Instead of honestly doing his duty to his motherland," the indictment said, "he carried out the instructions of foreign intelligence."

All decisions taken at the sitting of the delegation were relayed to the delegations of England and America. In this way Zyrkov has clearly helped the Bulgarian cause and facilitated the plans of the western imperialists."

INFORMATION TO U.S.
At the opening of the second day of the trial, Zyrkov told Ivanov, Methodist church supervisor in Bulgaria, testified supplied Soviet military information to American officials.

Ivanov prefaced his confession of guilt yesterday with this exclamation: "I am a traitor."

GREASE GETS HER OUT
YUKON, Okla., Feb. 26.—(AP)—Knock-out drops, cow grease and a strong push-and-pull freed the cow from her oil prison at 7:30 a.m. today.

It was a triumph for the Denver Post, which invited Oklahoma to resume this bovine dance in its own state.

Grady's captivity ended just five days after she bolted into the air through a feed door 37 by 20 inches in size.

She left the silo with great squealing and clatter of hoofs with Helen Parker, farm editor of the Post, pushing her from behind with the help of three others.

Crump was pulling along with Bill and Charles Mach, Grady's owners.

COLLEGIANS RAID GIRLS' DORMITORY

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Feb. 26.—(BUP)—Officials of Augustana College said today "appropriate disciplinary action" may be taken against 230 male students who invaded the girls' dormitory, dumped the coeds out of bed and soiled some of them in hush.

The Rev. Harry B. Johnson, Dean of Men, said the affair was a "prank," and that "such things are unnecessary."

But one coed said "it was really more fun than anything else."

"In fact," said Lois Taylor, a senior from Geneseo, Ill., the girls "had an inkling" the boys were coming. She said some of the doors may have been "conveniently open."

$2 Passport Renewal Set

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—(CP)—External Affairs Minister Pearson said yesterday in the Commons that Canadians now may renew their passports for a fee of $2.

Previously the passport office charged $5 for a renewal. Refunds of $3 will be sent to those who paid the $5 fee for renewals after the Canadian Citizenship Act came into force Jan. 1, 1947.

In the new passport regulations were described as British subjects. In the new passport they are described as Canadian citizens.

Mr. Pearson said the new passports will be good for 10 years from the date of issue.

It was also arranged, he said, that persons holding the old passports may have them renewed without charge for short periods which might be necessary to avoid hardships which might be caused by delays incident to issuance of new passports.

MOTHER HYSTERICAL
He had been standing quietly in the box as only a few seconds earlier the entire courthouse echoed with the hysterical shrieks of his griever mother. Carried from the youth who has 26 previous convictions—including forgery, assault, and theft recorded on his record.

Then as members of the RCMP stood from the court, he attempted the break.

Followed Try At Break-In

A Fairview man shot and killed himself Friday while being pursued by RCMP after he had attempted to break into a farm home and shot the farmer in the leg.

He is Harry Fox, a bachelor who lived in a shack 10 miles west of Fairview.

RHAMP in Edmonton reported that Fox had attempted to break into the home of William Leonard and was caught in the act. He fired at Leonard and hit him in leg.

Fox is expected to have retreated to his shack and took his own life when RCMP closed in on him.

This is the second shooting in the district this week. Early Thursday Richard Walsh of Leduc took his own life after attempting to murder his wife, who is still in University hospital here.

Further details are not yet available, police said.

Town Planner Raps Mayor, Commissioners in Quitting

By Lloyd Jenkins
Because Mayor Harry Arlay and the City Commissioners would not agree to stop interfering with the Town Planning Commission, Prof. Cecil Burgess said today he refused to reconsider his resignation as chairman.

After the Commission unanimously requested Prof. Burgess to reconsider his resignation, he interviewed Hon. D. B. Macmillan, minister of Public Works, J. H. Miller, mayor, director of surveys and town planning, and the City Commission.

"The provincial authorities told me I was correct in my interpretation of the Act but," said the professor, "the whole thing was a waste of time. I would change their attitude, or appreciate the necessity of forward-looking planning. I have no alternative but to confirm my resignation, Prof. Burgess stated.

CITY CHEWED TO PIECES
Prof. Burgess said that he did not want to create "a fuss" but he was sincerely convinced something should be done before the city got itself into a planning mess which might eventually cost millions of dollars to alter.

"The city is being chewed to pieces by people who know nothing about the city," he said.

OTTAWA, Feb. 26.—(CP)—Several questions were thrown at the government in the commons yesterday as an attempt to the announcement that the initial price of wheat board delivered to the wheat board between 1945 and 1950 will be $1.75 a bushel.

John Diefenbaker (PC-Lake Centre) asked if the farmers receiving the extra 20 cents a bushel would have to count the whole change as part of 1948 income for tax purposes, regardless of when the wheat was grown.

Coast Weather 47-Year Record

Winter Miserable And Snowy Like Rest Of Canada

VANCOUVER, Feb. 26.—(CP)—It used to be "come to Vancouver and escape the winter." But from now on the travel posters may read—"and enjoy the bracing climate."

Shamewind and shivering the winter is. They've undergone the coldest, snowiest, most miserable winter in 47 years.

POWER RATIONING ENDED. The city is beginning to reappraise its power situation. The B.C. Electric Company's "Evergreen Playgrounds" won't likely be climatically lording it over the rest of the country for some time.

This winter they had their first real snow. They got out the street-cleaning "Cold enough for you?" It started back in November—end of the wettest and stormiest. The snows on record. The first snow was on Nov. 20.

Less than a month later it came to stay—Dec. 14.

LOTS OF SNOW

Four days of the prairie lightning frigate right at home. In Vancouver 57 inches of snow fell in the first week of December. It was in December that the B.C. Electric Company first saw a potential snow shortage. Freezing temperatures prevented snow from melting. The snow was so deep that it was impossible to clear.

Not February been any fun. There's been plenty of snow—64 inches here on Feb. 25—and temperatures have been continuously below normal. Now spring is imminent, so are floods.

Nova Scotia's mild winter and a low volume of coal-mine freight overland from Canada has produced in the province's coalfields, leaving thousands of miners unemployed.

Electricians' Seek Board

CALGARY, Feb. 26.—Civil electric workers will ask for appointment of an Alberta arbitration board to settle their dispute with the city of Calgary over wages, a union official said yesterday.

Officials of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers said they are willing to accept the arbitration board to settle the dispute.

The union has been asking approximately 30 cents an hour increase and some change in working conditions. The city councilors have offered a 10 per cent increase or about six cents an hour based on the cost of living index and subject to upward or downward movement.

Two of the eight civil unions have accepted the city's offer while the other six are still negotiating. The waterworks and sewage disposal board is still in session.

U.K. KEEPS BLOOD SPORTS

LONDON, Feb. 26—(CP)—Rural Britain, where tradition dies hard, defeated in the House of Commons yesterday a bill to abolish blood sports. The vote, cutting across party lines, was 24 to 10.

The climax of the debate which has raged on platforms, in newspapers and around village pubs came in warm words in the Commons. It was almost a clear division between town and country.

The bill, introduced by city-dweller Seymour Chasler, Labor member for Brentford, would have prohibited hunting of deer, other and badger with hounds as well as coursing of hares and rabbits.

For cock, blood sports were usually—hardly demolished by hounds, living hedges thrown to bloodthirsty dogs, hard-petted deer in mud flight with blood streaming down their sides.

For Agriculture Minister Tom Williams, who denounced the bill in the name of the government and other critics, hunting sports were less cruel than poison traps shooting and the stern law of nature itself.

Besides, said Williams, Britain needed more than ever the goodwill and co-operation of all classes of the rural population. "It is no part of government policy to nationalize packs of hounds," he added.

"In the words of some parts of the country," Williams said, "the people have very few relaxations and they also have many anxieties and if at this moment, without unbecomingly interfering with their limited opportunities for recreation they would regard it as a very fit return for their efforts."

The final proposals stand of opponents of the bill was a party ad through the streets of London.

Earth Atmosphere Left By Racket in U.S. Test

WHITE SANDS, N.M., Feb. 26.—(BUP)—The altitude record of 250 miles set by a "two stage" rocket travelling at 5,000 miles an hour put mankind one step nearer the time when man-made satellites will be shot into outer space to circle the earth forever, experts said today.

The rocket, a German V-2 with a 70-pound "WAC Corporal" rocket in its warhead, was shot 250 miles into the sky over the White Sands proving ground and officials said "for all practical purposes" it soared beyond the earth's atmosphere.

Actually, both the speed and altitude records were set by the "WAC Corporal" rocket. It was shot from the proving ground at an undisclosed height and soared by into the heavens to reach an altitude of 250 miles. This was more than the previous altitude record of 134 miles set by a V-2. It reached a top speed of 5,000 miles per hour before its fuel was exhausted and it fell back to the earth, officials said.

M.D. Gen. Henry B. Spiller, army ordnance research chief, said the rocket was a definite step toward launching man-made satellites.

"There has been much conjecture as to a possible man-made satellite to circle the earth continuously," Spiller said. "It must be admitted that this flight brings much closer the time when such a satellite could be launched."

"I am sure that it is not sure whether such a missile will be successful or serve a useful purpose."

PEEPERS TRY TO RAISE ROOF

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—(CP)—Toronto's downtown sidewalk superintendents today raised their voices in wrathful protest.

It seems they've been deprived of their peepers.

In all the boarding around construction jobs downtown there isn't a legal peephole in the city's area and permits department ordered the holes boarded up. The department says such spectators obstruct sidewalk traffic.

SYMBOLS OF SAFETY

You'd come to a sudden curve without warning if the familiar highway checkerboard weren't there. This symbol of safety makes highway travel smoother, safer, faster. Just as the Treasury Branches make business operations easier throughout the province by providing a complete, modern service.

A Current Account at your Treasury Branch is a revolution in courtesy, speed and service. So all your business is the Symbol of Safety.

Bulletin's First Annual Golden Gloves Provides Smash Entertainment Opening Night

WHO'S EXCITED? ... Terrence Scott, 60 pounds of fighting dynamite was the first winner as the Golden Gloves got underway at the Stock Pavilion last night. Handler Bill Allan bandages the little fellow's hands just before the latter heads into the ring. Most of the battlers had considerable on Terrence in size but little in earnestness.

MISS RUTH GILLIS, Edmonton's own Gladys Gooding, took over in the ring to sing O Canada as last night's show was officially opened. She made a fine impression.

"HEY, WHAT GOES HERE?" ... Paradise valley's Don Robinson, a 58-pound 'bruiser', got himself fouled up by an armlock thrown his way by opponent Ronnie Dadds. Eventually he wriggled free, went on to make it interesting for the sprightly Dadds.

BIG AND LITTLE guys alike 'faced' the scales as weigh-in chores were tackled, starting a full hour before the first fight got underway. It's Dale Fleming on the scales, with 'Sonny' Frizzell, Ponoka scrapper, watching the old indicator.

KO's Feature Garden Card

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—(AP)—Roland La Starza, unbeaten Bronx heavyweight, ran his victory streak to 30 fights last night stopping poly-poly Gino Buonvino of Italy in 32 seconds of the sixth round of a 10-round co-feature in Madison Square Garden. La Starza weighed 186; Buonvino 204.

Referee Frank Fildan halted the bout as La Starza punched the hapless Italian on the ropes.

SAVED BY THE BELL

The 23-year-old La Starza dropped the short-armed Italian four times. Buonvino went down for three in the first round and was flogged for counts of eight and nine, and once for a knockout, in the fifth. The third time he was hit in the fifth the bell saved him.

In the other feature bout, scheduled for 10 rounds, Pete Mead, Grand Rapids (Mich.) veteran, came off the floor to stop Joey De John of Syracuse, N.Y., in 2:03 of the seventh round. Mead weighed 160; De John 157. Dropped twice for nine counts and his face a bloody mask from cuts the 25-year-old Michigan gambler caught the 23-year-old De John with a left to the jaw that sent him spinning across the ring and then down for nine.

RUNS INTO A RIGHT

The living Syracuse socker, a big winner up until the seventh, came out swinging but ran into a smashing right which toppled him for nine again.

Mead, the blood streaming down his face, tore after his shorter opponent. He nailed him with a left and right and De John, still trying to swing, fell to the canvas.

Before Johnny Burns halted the bout, before any count could be started.

THANK YOU, MR. MASON

Gene Mason, the local fight promoter, has seen plenty of Golden Gloves tournaments in his days in the fight game.

So it came as quite an honor when Mason tapped The Bulletin's first attempt in the promoting of amateur scraps as being as good as seen anywhere.

"It was conducted as well as any such tournaments I have seen," said Gene. Finals in the first annual championships, with youngsters from many northern, central and southern Alberta points taking part, will go on at the Stock Pavilion tonight.

Golden Boy Award Is Premiere Honor

A number of top-notch awards will be presented to winners in the Edmonton Bulletin's first annual Golden Gloves tournament, which winds up tonight at the Stock Pavilion.

Among the most prized, however, will be the Jack Sharkey trophy which will be presented to the Golden Boy, Sharkey, a former fighter in his youth and a well known Edmonton business man and sports figure, has put up this trophy as an annual award.

RUGGIE MACDONALD was a cool, crafty fighter throughout most of the five-round tussle he had with stocky Gordon Riddell, Recreation club star. In the above MacDonald, well 'hidden' behind his right, just misses with a long left to Riddell's cranium. MacDonald coped the verdict, winning as many as four rounds in the eyes of certain ringside observers.

Pictures by Eric Bland and Peter Sullivan, Bulletin Staff Photographers.

Gloves Finals Go Tonight

Now that the cream of the Golden Gloves has settled on the top after last night's bouts the stage is in order for the finals tonight.

First bout goes at 7:30 in the Stock Pavilion.

Highlight of this evening's performance will be the selection of the Golden Boy. This lucky fellow will receive the huge trophy donated by Jack Sharkey and will be entitled to keep it until the Golden Gloves of 1950. The Golden Boy selection, based upon boxing ability, showmanship, and sportsmanship, will be made by a panel of judges who have witnessed all bouts.

Tonight's program doesn't figure to run as long as last night's show, due mainly to the fewer bouts being offered. And it is likely that some of the flistic power displayed Friday will blow up into knockouts and TKOs.

Following is the Saturday card:

10-pound final—Ronnie Dadds, EBC vs. Neil Neville, EBC.

80-pound semi-final—Jack Moriarty, Barrehead, vs. Dale Fleming, EBC; Jones vs. Percell.

Final—Winner Moriarty-Fleming vs. winner Jones-Percell.

10-pound final — Bud MacDonald, EBC vs. Pierre Roberts, EBC.

10-pound semi-final — Don Boyer, Barrehead vs. Ken Smith.

Final—Winner Boyer-Smith vs. Ken St. Peter, EBC.

115-pound final—Art Kruger, EBC vs. Leo Jacob, EBC.

10-pound semi-final—Bill Fountain, Barrehead vs. Jim Fraz, Barrehead.

Final—Winner Fraz-Fountain vs. Jim McGregor.

115-pound semi-final—Walter Kosch, South Side Legion vs. George Hart, Barrehead; Don McGregor, EBC vs. Pete Glick, Barrehead.

Final—Winner Kosch-Hart vs. winner McGregor-Glick.

147-pound (novice) semi-final — Macdonald vs. J. MCA vs. Douglas Whitelake, Oda.

Final—Winner Logan-Whitelake vs. Levitt-McIntosh.

JOHN TANSEY GIVEN GIFT AWAY GIFT

John Tansey, who along with brother Alf, has turned out many a good fighter at the Edmonton Boxing Club, leaves for Vancouver shortly, where he will take up permanent residence.

But he won't go without knowing the deep feeling his young scrappers have for him. The youngsters got together last night at the Bulletin's Golden Gloves tournament and presented him with a nifty bronze statuette of a fighter.

John has been transferred by his company. Alf will carry on as trainer of the club.

City Fighters In Lively Bout

Two young Edmonton fighters, one of whom hasn't had the gloves on for two years, gave one of many fine performances on opening night of the Bulletin's Golden Gloves tournament held in the Stock Pavilion last evening.

117-pound open final—Charles Kane, Edmonton vs. John Taylor, South Side Legion.

160-pound novice semi-final—Frank Taylor, Edmonton vs. Bill Howson, Varsity.

Final—Winner Taylor-Howson vs. Ray Glick, EBC.

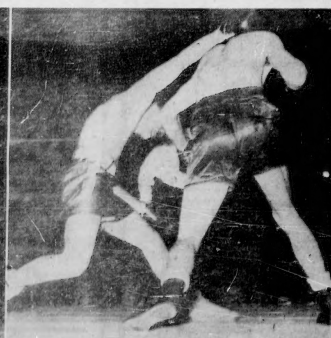

GALLANT in defeat was Mike O'Reilly, unattached local milt-alinger, who lost the decision to Levitt McMaster. Gleichsen produced, in what was widely acclaimed as the most exciting bout on the card.

THERE WAS probably more riding on the Hugh MacDonald-Gordon Riddell bout from a prestige point of view than on any other fight on the card. In this shot MacDonald, who caught the nod, blocks a Riddell left. The latter seems ready to cut loose with his right. Pre-fight speculators hesitated to make a definite choice.

WHEN YOU CAN'T do anything else there's nothing like a clinch to enable a fellow to catch his wind. Bobby Kerner, Edmonton Boxing Club, wraps arms securely about the knees of Barrehead's 'Red' Hornsby. The out-of-towner was the winner.

RED DEER'S George Hart, back to camera, proved one of the most promising fighters on the first Golden Gloves card in the history of Edmonton. In this one a long looping right, thrown by Art Jones, lands harmlessly on the Hart neck. The latter won a second round TKO.

THE REFEREES worked overtime as they took charge for 71 rounds of boxing. Johnny Smith is caught in characteristic pose, counting off the seconds for a knockdown. Like Barney O'Connor and Jack Berry, Smith was 'all in' at the finish.

Builders

Smaller Houses Prove Best Buy

Taxes, Maintenance Lower City Survey Points Out

The houses of a generation ago were usually larger than those we are building today. Perhaps many of us would like to build a larger house with wide halls and extra rooms but there are solid reasons why the present trend is towards smaller houses.

FAITHFUL DOG SAVES TOT SECOND TIME

ALLENSTOWN, Pa., Feb. 28.—(AP)—For the second time in 10 months, "Garcie," a collie, has saved the life of Bobbie Kenneth.

Bobbie, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kenneth fell into a six-foot, water-filled agricultural hole yesterday.

But "Garcie" clung to his long teeth on the boy's right arm and, with forepaws, on the edge of the hole, supporting him.

The parents, terrified by the child's screams, rushed from the house.

Ten months ago "Garcie" pulled Bobbie off his trampoline when the boy drove into the street in the path of an oncoming truck.

MORE APPARENT

The economy of the small or moderate sized house is even more apparent when the house is occupied. Heating costs in any circumstances must be fairly high in this climate. Yet a well-insulated house of moderate size can be kept warm at a reasonable rate in winter.

Maintenance costs are considerably lower for a small house. The item of painting alone is important. The smaller the house, the less paint and for the labor required to put it on.

TAXES VARY

Taxes vary directly with the size of the house although other considerations come in. The small house gives a saving in taxes which is important over a period of years.

The smaller house is kinder to the housewife. In these days, when maid is hard to find and expensive to maintain, greater numbers of housewives are doing all, or nearly all, of the necessary house work. Keeping a large house clean along with the other household duties is beyond the strength of one person.

Anyone who builds a house should always have the idea of resale in mind even though he intends to live there all his days. No one can predict the future with full certainty, and for various reasons a move may be necessary.

In such a situation it is important that the house should be easily saleable and that it should bring as good a price as possible.

Since moderate size houses are most popular it is most likely that they can be sold quickly at a profit price at any time. In periods of recession the smaller houses have an even greater advantage in this respect.

The most economical type of house, the house that gives the most floor space for the dollar, is the one and a half story house.

This type of house is very popular in Edmonton and many of these built under the integrated housing plan are of this type.

As conditions are in 1948, the house of moderate size is not usually expensive to own and to operate. At the same time it is large enough to lend itself to the gracious living which we associate with the idea of home ownership.

Council Talks Set

LONDON, Feb. 28. (AP)—A diplomat yesterday said 19 countries will start talks in Paris about March 15 to draft a charter for the proposed council of Europe. The countries are Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg, Greece, Italy, Sweden, Denmark, and Norway.

THE CLINTON has a rear bedroom located to give its floor plan a most interesting flexibility. If this room is not needed as a third bedroom it can be used as a den, workshop or nursery, as it is situated between the kitchen and the bathroom. Another possibility is a door in the living room partition. This would convert the rear room into a separate dining room. If the partition between the two rooms were eliminated completely, it would make a beautiful L-shaped combination living room and dining room.

Closest space in The Clinton is plentiful. There are coat closets at both entrances. There is a broom closet in the kitchen and a linen closet in the bathroom.

The kitchen sink is placed under the corner window. This provides a view of the front and side yards.

However, if desired, the stone can be replaced by brick with good results.

The Clinton's dimensions are 42 feet by 28 feet with a floor area of 1,068 square feet and a volume of 2,132 cubic feet. This includes the basement.

For further information about THE CLINTON, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

'SPRING LOOK' IN A 'SUIT LOOK'

DOUBLE-TIME ENSEMBLE of a short box jacket and a pencil-slim skirt gives the essence of "spring '38" to the pretty gabardine suit worn by Alice Brown. The jacket does a dual job as a shortie coat. This line of a suit, in warm amber-brown, is a perfect example of the most popular suit of the new season.

'49 Fashions Offer Flattering Styles

This year's fashions offer a thousand wardrobe possibilities to suit every figure . . . with multiple variations in design that run from the full to severe straight lines . . . subtly eye-catching and complimentary.

Most important item in the wardrobe of the well-dressed woman is the frock which French women describe as "La petite robe". We call it the little all-purpose afternoon dress.

The kimono cut, which tends to soften the shoulder line, is still very much in fashion. Tricks of design give a deceptively tiny waistline, while the hips are allowed to retain their natural fullness. The accepted length varies according to the model—from sports to cocktail—but one can safely draw an average at about 12 inches from the ground.

Various outlines have come into prominence. The severe straight cut, in particular, is gaining in popularity every day. Each of the outstanding stylists is presenting his own interpretation.

Certain models frankly mimic the nurses uniform, with its patch pockets and high neckline—a new variation of the standard shirt-waist dress is displaying several interesting uses. Patch suggests it even for the cocktail hour, made of diaphanous tulle, over a clinging slip.

The new "sheath" dress is presented in wool and black velvet, sometimes hobbled and sometimes loosened with graceful pleats in the front or draped in the back for ease of movement.

A certain taffeta model sports a calyx design down the side of the skirt, whose irregular points allow glimpses of the calf.

MILADY OF FASHION APPROVES

TRUE TO DICTATES of Dame Fashion, flattering femininity scores top marks this spring-look. Here, Barbara Lyman gives strong melody to the song of spring in a chic silver-grey gabardine suit with the important cape collar, reed-slim skirt and self-covered buttons.

ELEGANT DRAPERY PERFECTION

PAVILION PINK blooms this spring with a deliciously new glow of color. Tess Truitt wears a crepe afternoon dress in the new shade, slated to be top-of-the-list on the new-season points of color. Front tucking, aside lines make this copy of a Christian Dior original, flattering and feminine.

EXQUISITELY DESIGNED PRINTED SILKS FOR FAVORITE FROCKS

FLOWERS THAT BLOOM in the spring bloom in the fresh, youthful "faded" design chosen for sparkling-spring frocks. A navy printed silk like this modelled by Joan Arnold is a must for tea-timing informal, after-five parties and a host of other occasions. This character is styled with a four-layered skirt, a wide strap, cap sleeves and flatteringly simple neckline. Nosegays of pink, pale blue and daffodil yellow are spashed across the navy.

COMPLETELY RESTYLED, the 1940 Chevrolet is lower, wider and available in two series—Fleetline and Stylized—with a wide variety of types. As shown in the Stylized four-door deluxe sedan, there has been an immense increase in glass area with all windows deepened and widened. The windshield takes full advantage of wider bodies, curving inward at the narrow pillars to improve roadway as well as forward vision. The gain in visibility over 1939 has been as much as 30 per cent on comparable models. The new Chevrolet for 1940 is powered by a rugged six-cylinder, valve-in-head engine and will be on display here Saturday at J. Monmouth showroom, 1102 street.

French Entangled Between Extremes

Says De Gaulle Does Not Mean A Fascist Regime

John Gunther finds General de Gaulle strengthening his political position in EDITOR.

France

As of the time we saw it the struggle for power in France was triple: between the middle-of-the-road Quetelle government, the Communists, and De Gaulle, with De Gaulle's strength sharply rising. The government's position was that of trying to avoid extermination between two perilous extremes.

The three great questions to ask General de Gaulle are these:

1. Will your movement seek power only by legal means, i.e., do you maintain any intention of using force to seize office by coup d'état?
2. Can you restore order, stability and discipline to France without violation of democratic principles and civil liberties?
3. De Gaulle's own capacities, including his German error, however, they have put through a cultural program of considerable interest and importance.

The French are, I heard it put, "the weak sisters of Europe, because they want war least." Nevertheless, they are of colossal importance to United States policy because a Communist victory in France would be neutralized if war broke out, and the Americans (as the Communists love to point out) would have no beachhead for an expeditionary force. Hence, it is Communism, not the French, is the danger to the French, in effect, "they ball with us, and we ball them." France, when we take Germany.

It might not work out that way. I have heard American officials say bitterly, "The French try to talk us into their policy of keeping Germany permanently weak. But if war comes, they'll want us, the Americans, to make it strong, or it will have to be us, the Americans, who will have the job of defending them against both the Germans and the Russians."

Copyright, 1946, by John Gunther

Mr. Gunther concludes his twelve-part series tomorrow with some general observations on Europe as seen from the vantage point of France.

The first Victoria Cross was made of bronze obtained from Russia and given during the Crimean War.

Finally, a word on French attitudes toward Germany. It would seem that the number of French planes participating in the attack on Berlin is exactly two.

There are, of course, several reasons for this. One is that the French cannot say very much about whether or not Germany starves to death. The more dead Germans, the better it is for France, another is that the French oppose anything that emphasizes the role of Berlin, the city, in German life. There is also a symbol of the possible renaissance and unification of Germany, and therefore dislike it heartily. Berlin is almost as remote as Alaska to most Frenchmen these days. They think of it as a potato patch somewhere out in Asia.

What France wants is a Germany permanently weak and, if possible, divided. Hence the continual stubborn obstruction to France to practically every step the Americans and British take to put Germany on its feet. General Clay and General Keenig, the French Military Governor, are scarcely on speaking terms. The French provoke and irritate us and hold off agreement on an issue as long as possible, and then do agree only because they fear that if they don't they might lose Marshall aid.

GREAT IMPORTANCE

In their own German error, however, they have put through a cultural program of considerable interest and importance.

Sex Teaching Problem Arouses U.K. Debate

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Education authorities in Britain have more or less agreed that if parents are not willing to explain sex facts to their children the job should be done by the schools.

They are not in agreement of the best method of expounding. Some favor special lectures. Others say this focuses too much attention on sex as a single problem, and that it should be discussed in a general way with other topics.

LONDON VIEW

The education committee of the London County Council favors the latter view. In a pamphlet written to prompt discussion of teaching methods, the committee said, sex education should have an "integrative place in the whole context of education."

It thought kindergarten teachers should be prepared to answer any questions in brief, matter-of-fact fashion. Nature study in junior schools could include frank explanations of such matters as reproduction, while in secondary schools the subject could be incorporated in science and physiology classes.

Many schools already have sex lecturers. Most are taken as a matter of course, although occasionally they become matters of sharp local controversy.

PARENTS CRITICAL

In Malby, Yorkshire, the headmistress of Malby Hall girls' secondary school was criticized by some parents when she asked Dr. Euse Vincent to give a series of lectures on sex. However, only 14 of her 216 pupils were away from the talks by their mothers.

Under the Education Act of 1944, the only classes from which a parent can legally withhold a child are those dealing with religion. Education authorities said parents seldom objected, but were not happy to be prosecuted if they defied to do so.

CHILDREN DRUGGED TO AVOID EVICTION

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—(CP)—Families fearing eviction here are giving children sedatives to keep them quiet.

This aspect of Toronto's housing problem came to light in a speech by Hugo Wolter, consultant to the civic advisory council. It was verified later by Dr. Alan Brown, chief of medical staff at the Hospital for Sick Children.

Dr. Brown said he knew that sedative drugs prescribed by doctors were being given to children of families in crowded quarters and he thoroughly disagreed with the practice. But it was a measure of self-defense by the parents.

"You can't bring a child up properly in an apartment or duplex," he added.

Hall Doubts Red Ban Of TLC is Solution

1 X—HALL DOUBTS Inside Montreal, Feb. 25.—(CP)—F. H. Hall, chairman of the anti-Communist bloc of Canadian labor unions said Friday his group would meet shortly to discuss the situation resulting from the Trades and Labor Congress announcement that all its affiliated organizations would be advised to bar Communists from holding union office.

"It doesn't seem that the Congress officers have made much of an effort to settle the differences," said Mr. Hall, Canadian leader of Tailors, Dressmakers and Fashion Accessories, a group affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

SUSPENDED BY THE TLC Mr. Hall was suspended by the TLC for some time because of his attitude toward the Congress. The Congress leaders in Montreal, however, are not in a hurry to suspend him.

"What we are looking for is a definite stand against the Communist-controlled unions affiliated with the Congress," declared Mr. Hall in a statement.

"The decision to circulate a petition asking the Congress to suspend all Communist-controlled unions is a step in the right direction," he said.

Wage Boost Urged For Toronto Taximen

TORONTO, Feb. 25.—(CP)—A $30 weekly wage for Toronto taxi drivers, plus 30 per cent of weekly fares collections exceeding $75, was recommended in a resolution passed by the Toronto Taxicab Drivers' Association.

The association's executive committee said the recommendation was made after a survey of taxi drivers' earnings.

"The Congress cannot evade its responsibility in this situation," he said. "The Congress cannot evade its responsibility in this situation."

RCAF TIES DOWN 85 VAMPIRE JET CRAFT

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—(CP)—A letter was issued from Air Headquarters in Ottawa, yesterday night, on a slight modification of its Vampire jet fighters, now distributed to various auxiliary RCAF squadrons across the country.

"Although they lacked a specific mission for the grounding order, the RCAF officers noted a series of technical problems had been keeping Vampire fighters out of action for several weeks. Only one of the two machines from Central Flying School were in the air at a time, and the rest were undergoing repairs."

Canada To Gain From ECA Millions

Gov't Renews Office Lease

Ontario government, through department of public works, renewed lease on 3,300 square feet of office space in the New Market Building, 100 street and 102 avenue.

Children's Allowance department and the Unemployment Insurance Commission are housed in this building.

Thirty minutes later: "There are five rabbits out here."

An hour later: "There are nine rabbits now."

Thompson rushed home—11 rabbits. Yesterday there were 24. Thompson said it looks like a special meeting is in order to decide what to do with "Reuben and his offspring."

U.S. Senate Proposes Cut in Aid to Britain

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—(AP)—The Truman administration has rushed up its biggest cuts to date in aid to Britain, a $400,000,000 second installment in Marshall Plan aid to Britain.

Both State Secretary Dean Acheson and Paul G. Hoffman, foreign aid administrator, spoke out strongly in favor of the requested aid for the British.

The Senate action, in turn, grew out of statements by a high-level British official indicating that Britain's recovery has picked up speed and may now be over the hump.

Chairman Tom Connally (Dem. Tex.) announced the Senate foreign relations committee will review the British request again Monday.

When the Wheat Board, which was operative during the First World War, ceased operations a large sum of money was left for which no claims were made. This was divided equally between the 25-year-old provinces.

Alberta, since the advent of the Social Credit government, has been using only the interest on this province's share and has devoted it to the encouragement of agriculture by supplying scholarship for farm legislation Thursday by Hon. David Young.

ALL THE LUCK

DURING a bit of independent snooping around one of the big houses near the Teenie Weenie village, the Dunce discovered a tempting custard pie. A tin pie plate covered the pie, but through a crack between the pans the Dunce could make out the dim outlines of the pie. Besides, it smelled like custard pie, which is one of his favorite dishes. The Dunce visited the pie three times and with each visit his virtuous resolve not to meddle with it became weaker. Finally, he mentioned the matter of a raid on the pie to Gogo and the Sailor, who also have a weakness for custard pie.

"No, sah!" answered Gogo. "I'm not lookin' fo' any misery."

"There need not be any misery," argued the Dunce. "We'll just take a little bit. Not enough to make us sick."

"I don't mean belly misery," answered Gogo. "I mean the scoldin' misery we get from the General when we take to meddlin' in big folks' things."

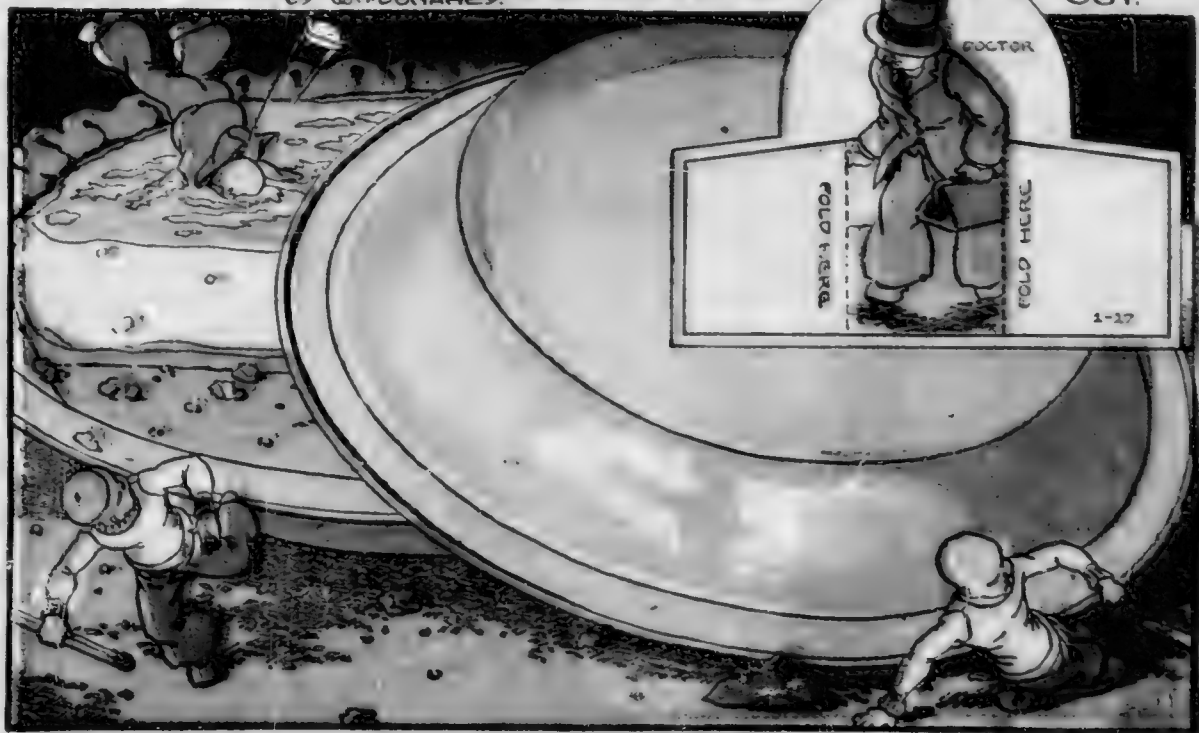

"Ah, shucks!" put in the Sailor. "The General will never find out about it and the big folks will never miss just a few bites of custard."

After long and vigorous argument, Gogo finally consented to join the raid. The three little chaps went to the house and scrambled up onto the shelf where the pie stood. The tin plate that covered the pie was very heavy and the three Teenie Weenies soon found that it would take a lot of work to push it aside far enough to reach the desired custard.

"I'll get up on the rim of the lower pan and lift if you fellows can get something to pry with," said the Sailor. "That way we can ease the top pan over far enough to get at the custard."

The TEENIE WEEENIES

BY W. DONAHEY

Gogo and the Dunce found a couple of burned match sticks, which they slipped between the two pans. At a signal from the Sailor, the Dunce and Gogo pried with their matches while the Sailor lifted with all his might. Suddenly the top pan slipped, coasted off the bottom pan and slid onto the Dunce, pinning him to the shelf by one leg. The Sailor plunged head first into the pie. But he quickly walloped out and announced that it was very tasty custard.

The other two Teenie Weenies never had a taste of the pie because the Dunce had been hurt. The Sailor and Gogo carried him to the Teenie Weenie village, where the Doctor reported that his leg had been badly injured. He was put to bed and waited a great deal—not over his injured leg, but over the fact that he had not had a single taste of the pie.

"Why couldn't I have been the one who fell into the pie?" the Dunce complained to the Sailor.

I HAVE EVER BELIEVED, AND DO NOW KNOW, THAT THERE ARE WITCHES: THEY THAT ARE IN DOUBT OF THESE ARE DELIBERATE AND UPON CONSEQUENCE A SORT, NOT OF INFIDELS, BUT ATHEISTS. — SIR THOMAS BROWNE —

I WAS EXPECTING THAT MUCH.

THERE ARE DOODLES OF REASONS FOR THAT.

I’M GRATEFUL TO FATHER CLOCK FOR OFFERIN’ US THE PLACE.
